Concert of Religious Music by festival musicians and others, led by Jean Ritchie - Student Activities Room, Alumni Building

This festival is financed in part by a grant from the Kentucky Arts Council.

Several of the performers will have tapes on the stage following each evening's performance. The Appalachian Center also has available books and recordings from the Appalachian Sound Archive of Clyde Davenport, Leonard Roberts, John Morgan Salyer, and Walter McNew. George Brosi, of Appalachian Mountain Books, will have a display of books relating to Appalachia in the Alumni Building on Saturday.

The Grandpa and Ramona Jones family have organized a benefit concert in Phelps Stokes Chapel on the evening of November 20 for Appalachian children served by Save the Children Federation. The Joneses will be joined by their daughters Alisa Jones Wall and Eloise Jones Hawkins, John Hartford, and the Bill Sky Family.

If you want to be on our mailing list for notice of future festivals and other events, let us know by writing Appalachian Center, College Box 2336, Berea, KY 40404, or calling (606) 986-9341, Ext. 5140.
