*Established in 1970, the Red Foley Memorial Music Award recognizes talented Berea College students for their musical contribution to the social life of the campus community. The award was established in memory of country music star Red Foley, who attended the Berea Academy.

This festival is financed in part by a grant from the Kentucky Arts Council.

The Celebration was planned by the Berea College Traditional Music Committee—Bobby Fulcher, James Gage, Bob Gates, John Harrod, Loyal Jones, Rich Kirby, Atossa Kramer, Gordon McKinney, Gerald Milnes, Jean Ritchie, Gerald Roberts, and Betty Smith—and administered by the Berea College Appalachian Center.

Several of the performers will have tapes available on the stage following each evening's concert. The Appalachian Center also has available books and recordings of Clyde Davenport, Leonard Roberts, John Morgan Salyer, Walter McNew, Philip Kazee, and Roger Cooper. George Brosi, of Appalachian Mountain Books, will have a display of books relating to Appalachia in the Alumni Building on Saturday.

If you want to be on our mailing list for notice of future festivals and other events, let us know by writing Appalachian Center, College Box 2336, Berea, KY 40404, or calling (606) 986-9341, Ext. 5140.
