

the bell hooks center PRESENTS

Evening with an Activist

MARYAM AL TATOOZ

What does it mean to live in uncertainty? Or to be forced out of your home to save your family? How can Facebook help? Maryam will share her experience living through displacement in Iraq and how social media helped to connect and rebuild her community. Join our talk to learn more about her story and what you can do to help refugees and displaced people during COVID-19.

10/26 @ 5 PM
bhc, Draper 106

bell hooks

the bell hooks center
feminism is for everybody