What is your perception of Berea College in terms of the financial need of the institution in supporting the students it serves?

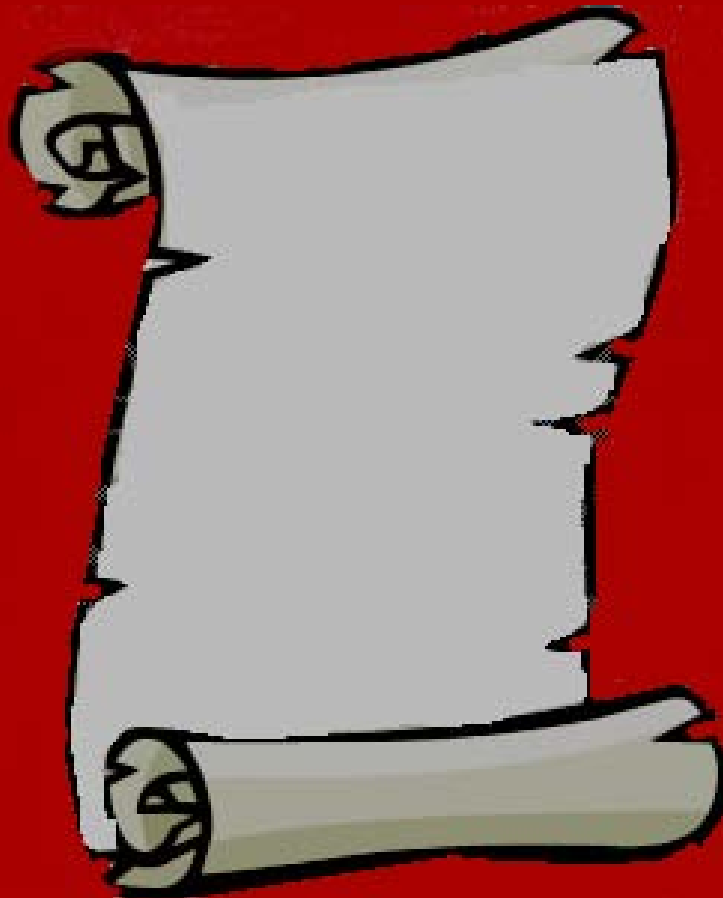

- Berea College needs my support no matter how large or small an amount I could give
- Berea College does not need my support unless I give a large amount
- Because of other funding sources, Berea College does not need support from me at all

What would encourage you to increase your level of support or begin to support the college financially?

- A personal note from someone I knew at Berea (a teacher, labor supervisor, etc.)
- A news story that described the need of the College and how it allocated its money
