LABOR MEETING RESOURCES

THE FIVE DYSFUNCTIONS OF A TEAM: A LEADERSHIP FABLE

"The fact remains that teams, because they are made up of imperfect human beings, are inherently dysfunctional. But that is not to say that teamwork is doomed. Far from it. In fact, building a strong team is both possible and remarkably simple".

But it is painfully difficult."

Like so many other aspects of life, teamwork comes down to mastering a set of behaviors that are at once theoretically uncomplicated, but extremely difficult to put into practice day after day."
