

2017-2018 PEACE AND SOCIAL JUSTICE STUDIES MINOR

(Minimum of five course credits)

A study of the causes of social injustice and violence, and of the conditions and practices necessary for establishing social justice, equality and sustainable peace in every dimension of human life and at every level of human interaction. The minor in Peace and Social Justice Studies requires a minimum of five (5) course credits. Students interested in pursuing an Independent Major in this field of study should contact the Director of Peace and Social Justice Studies to begin working on their proposal as early in their college career as possible.

Requirements

The following three (3) courses:

PSJ 100: Foundations of Peace and Social Justice	_____	1
PSJ 205: Movements and Community Organizaing	_____	1

AND

Three (3) additional courses, at least one chosen from each category.

Area I: Building Peace

COM 206	Interpersonal Communication	1 Course Credit
COM 207	Intercultural Communication	1 Course Credit
COM/AFR 305	Interracial Communication	1 Course Credit
PHI/PSC 207	Human Rights, International Law	1 Course Credit
PSJ/COM 113	Conflict and Mediation	1 Course Credit
PSJ 395/495	Internship (as approved by program)
PSC 250	International Relations	1 Course Credit
PSC 351	International Organizations	1 Course Credit
PSC 355	Foreign Policy Analysis	1 Course Credit

Area II: Social, Economic and Environmental Justice

APS/SOC 330	Comm Prob: Case of Appalachia	1 Course Credit
ECO 341	Economic Dev:Theory & Appl	1 Course Credit
PSJ 210	Diversity and Social Justice	1 Course Credit
PSJ/AFR/APS/SENS 225	Environmental Justice	1 Course Credit
PSJ 395/495	Internship (as approved by program)
SOC 223	Soci Stratification & Inequal	1 Course Credit
SOC 341	Soc of Dev & Social Change	1 Course Credit
WGS 127	Riding the Waves of Feminism	1 Course Credit

_____	_____	:		_____	_____
_____	_____	:		_____	_____
_____	_____	:		_____	_____