

2017-2018 SUSTAINABILITY AND ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES MINOR

(Minimum of five course credits AND a non-credit Experiential Learning Project)

Requirements

Core courses

SENS 100: Introduction to Sustainability and Environmental Studies _____ 1

Two additional courses, 200-level or above

_____ 1

_____ 1

AND

Distribution courses

Two (2) additional course credits required with one from each of the following two groups. With approval from the SENS Program Chair, other courses, including regular term or summer term courses germane to SENS learning objectives may be used to meet a Group I or Group II requirement.

Group I Natural Science: ANR 130, 240, 360, BIO 110, 114, 342, 344, CHM 131, 134, SENS 310

_____ 1

Group II Social Justice or Economic Viability: APS 229, CFS 145, ECO 102, 341, 370, MAT 108, PHI 104, 230, PSC 250, SOC 110, SENS 215 (also APS), SENS 225 (also AFR/APS/PSJ/WGS), SENS 320, 340, and 345 (also TAD).

_____ 1

Required Experiential Learning Project (noncredit course)—Must have completed SENS 100 and be pre-approved by the SENS Program Chair; project normally occurs beyond the classroom setting; may be on or off campus; and will involve students in activities central to SENS learning objectives. Projects may take the form of internships, student-faculty undergraduate research projects, service-learning projects, student Labor Positions.

_____