

2017-2018 Minor in Theatre

A minor in Theatre encourages students to explore theatre studies and practice that focuses on creative and intellectual interest and curiosity and meets student need. The minor is intentionally combined with the student's major to contribute to 1) the development of creative and applied skills that prepare the student for their choice of career and future educational goals; 2) the student's training in theatrical practice that seeks to mimic professional standards of production; and 3) a formal academic credential for those interested in pursuing Theatre courses as a significant part of their undergraduate education.

Required Core Courses – — THR 105, and

One course from THR 115, 124, or 213.

— _____:

Required Distribution Courses – Three (3) additional THR courses selected by the student in consultation with the academic advisor for the minor. Two (2) or more must be at or above the 200 level.

— _____:

— _____:

— _____:

Considerations:

- A "C" or higher is required in THR 105;
- No more than two (2) credits can be transferred to meet the requirements including those gained from study abroad;
- Three (3) additional THR courses. Two or more must be at the 200-level or higher.