Theatre majors are strongly encouraged to audition for all Theatre Laboratory productions, apply for production assignments, and serve at least once for a major production: 1) on a scenic or lighting crew, 2) on a costume or makeup crew, and 3) in stage management, house management, or dramaturgy in that this demonstrates a commitment to the work of the major and curriculum

Proficiency Standards for Admission and Theatre

Laboratory Participation: Students must complete THR 105 with a grade of C or higher before applying for admission to the major. Once accepted into the major, students must maintain an overall GPA of 2.0 or higher and a GPA in the major of 2.5 or higher in order to be eligible to participate in Theatre Laboratory productions as actors or members of the production team (directors, designers, dramaturges, stage managers). Students who are participating in order to fulfill course laboratory requirements or labor assignments are exempt from this standard, and other opportunities will be available to insure that students whose academic standings are low may still work in theatre productions in a limited way.
