

2021-2022 ENGLISH MINOR

A minor in English allows students to explore literature and writing within a structured framework that focuses intellectual curiosity and meets extant student need. This minor should be intentionally combined with a major in another discipline to contribute to (1) a student's training in the critical practices of reading and writing, (2) the development of analytical skills, intellectual tools, and (3) a formal credential for students interested in pursuing English courses as a substantive element in their undergraduate education.

Required Core Course (One course)

ENG 110 Intro to Literature in English

ENG 124 Intro to Creative Writing

ENG 270 Intro to Methods in English

Required Distribution Courses

Four ENG courses at the 200-level or higher, one of which must be at the 300-level. ENG 270 may count toward this total if it is not taken as the core course.

Students pursuing the minor are not eligible for ENG 470 or ENG 485.

A "C" or higher is required in each of the five courses for successful completion of the minor.

No more than two (2) total ENG credits accrued either at transfer institutions or during education abroad may be counted toward the minor.

Students may not minor in both English and Creative Writing.
