

2021-2022 STUDIES IN RELIGIONS AND SPIRITUALITY MINOR

(Minimum of five course credits)

Required Core Course

REL 100 The Study of Religions

Required Distribution Courses

The student must complete at least four (4) additional courses in the study of Religion that also meet the following requirements:

- 1) At least two (2) Religion-designated courses not cross-listed with any other academic program;
- 2) At least one (1) 200-level Religion-designated course that is not cross-listed with any other academic program;
- 3) At least one (1) regular 300-level Religion-designated course that is not cross-listed with any other academic program. NOTE: Independent studies, internships, team-initiated studies, and directed studies will not fulfill this basic requirement;
- 4) No more than two (2) potential interdisciplinary collateral courses in the study of religion from other academic programs of the College that the Religion Program may approve upon request.